

Clanwilliam/Meade Papers (D3044)

Summary

The Clanwilliam/Meade Papers comprise c.90 volumes and c.2,000 documents, 1659-1951, and are the papers of the Meade family, Earls of Clanwilliam, formerly of Gill Hall and Montalto, Co. Down. They consist of estate, diplomatic and family papers, and include material relating to other British and European aristocratic families to whom the Meades were related.

Introduction to the Clanwilliam/Meade Papers