

Templehouse Papers (MIC597)

Summary

The archive at Templehouse, Ballymote, Co. Sligo, divides into three distinct family components – Perceval, Hardcastle and Blane. All told, it amounts to the equivalent of c.55 PRONI boxes, plus a considerable volume of outsize material. All of it remains in family possession. But PRONI has sorted and listed the entire archive and has microfilmed a small fraction of it.
