Introduction

The files are being released under the 30/20 Year Rule.

The annual release of selected official files continues against a background of greater public access through the Freedom of Information Act balanced against the need to protect personal information. The FOI Act (2000) created a new access to information regime and all records were reviewed in accordance with both that Act and the Data Protection Act.

Annually since 1976, official records held by PRONI which were 30 years old have been reviewed with a view to making them publicly available ("the 30 year rule). In September 2011, the Assembly accepted a Legislative Consent Motion to reduce the time limit for release from 30 years to 20 years ("the 20 year Rule"). This is underpinned by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the amendments made to it by the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012.

The 20 Year Rule is being phased in over 10 years, with two years worth of records being reviewed and released each year. This year, the records of NI Departments and the NIO with terminal dates of 1987 are being brought forward for release during August 2015 and the records of 1988 will be brought forward in December 2015.

This process involves the referral of the files to the Responsible Authority for sensitivity review. This entails a page by page examination to ensure that a record contains nothing sensitive as defined by the FOI Act and DP Act.

Records Released

These files are available to the media in advance of their release to the public on the strict understanding that there is an embargo on publication or broadcast until 00.01hrs on Friday 21st August 2015.

542 files being deemed as suitable for release as “fully open”. A further 150 files are open but subject to blanking out of some content. 108 files remain closed in full, the bulk of which are individual prisoner files.

The main file series being released includes Central Secretariat and Northern Ireland Office files.

Some of the main issues covered by the 1987 release include:

- Anglo Irish Agreement
- Meetings with NI political parties
- Economic cooperation and negotiations (involving Ireland, UK, USA and Europe)
- The MacBride Principles (on discrimination in the workplace)
- High level and operational security matters (including on the border and within the penal system)
- Children and young people in care and the prevention of abuse
- European Convention on Human Rights and political prisoners
- Homelessness
- Drug addiction
- Cross border cooperation
- Supergrass arrangements (also known as ‘Converted Terrorists’)
- Extradition arrangements
- Community Groups
- Loyalist political prisoner protests
- Major investigation into alleged abuse of female political prisoners (whilst undergoing strip search protocols), at HMP Armagh
- Chernobyl

Records may be closed either fully or in part only. Blanking out involves the removal of a limited number of papers from the file that have been deemed as exempt from the right to know under FOI. To facilitate the release of as much information as possible, redaction can be used to blank out sensitive data within individual documents that would otherwise prevent release. All information which is withheld in the manner outlined above, however, must be retained in accordance with the exemptions contained within the FOI Act. In the majority of cases, the reason for extended closure was the application of section 40 – the personal information exemption – of the FOI Act. This means that personal information is exempt from the right to know if it would breach the Data Protection principles.

The catalogue of files for 1987 will be publicly available online on PRONI website from Friday 21st August 2015 and files will be available to view at PRONI from Friday 21st August.
