

JULY 1 TUESDAY [182-183]

Pleasant to wake up in this dear, sweet home again.
Busy in the morning over letters papers and my lecture for Sunday - day free.

In the afternoon the dear ~~friend~~ ~~shook~~ out ~~with me for a tea party~~ I had the rubber paraffin business with the dentist at that bright our home. Two tall extraordinary, a little brother, a pleasant drive

2 WEDNESDAY [183-182]

The weather was dull and not very warm, but we started. The hooker is 7. For a tea picnic in the afternoon. It was all so joyous. We made our house in Deaton Common; but the rain came on, one carriage did not return and we were obliged to sob off walking, with the rain. Daisy Phyllis was just a little angel.
Back after 8. Home to warm, comes back with

3 THURSDAY [184—181]

a long delightful day, with by below R.H. in the motor. Looking out for houses. Ashstead first When we saw a really pretty little house and a lovely garden. Unpacked & took tea on Ashstead Common. Between the two St. George's Hill. and on two charming houses -
 'old times!' Back tired but refreshed long sleep and strange dreams.

4 FRIDAY [185—180]

● New Moon, 5.6 a.m.

Another charming day visiting the dear Heischel, at Mayfield. The garden a dream of tender beautiful colour. Heard that it was being enquired about and freed since it is a happy few hours. Mr. Heischel looks splendidly well. Talked about the park Back to Bracken Hill with sweet evening to be welcomed & the little ones.

5 SATURDAY [186—179]

Dividends due S. R. 3.51, S. S. 8.17

Papers file of some between Balkan states and territory from the in the Rand.

Town. Office. Sent
Miss Smith. Theo. Convent
Prof. morning.

Business. meeting afternoon at small August Hale. then to Salina where kind Mary, Chick and her sisters were giving a strawberry party to the chickens -

6 Sunday [187—178]

7th after Trinity

Spent the day very quickly, part of it in the little room - thought, and thought. tried to prepare for the evening with some letters.
afternoon heavy rain.
Drove to town reaching August Hale a little before 7. Found dad early in the artists' room - a fair gathering. Dad, S. H. Green Mrs. Russell and I spoke.
Found manual difficult

7 MONDAY [188-177]

a chequered day - worse news from the Rand, and sensational story of a Suff. plan to burn London office. Talk with R. Boyl who is nig^h-trouble about the Rand. afternoon drove with K H to
 S. Paul's Girls High School Hammersmith. my interests. a family arranged lunch. to visit North London school but failed in fun.

8 TUESDAY [189-176]

Busy morning letters. lectures: early afternoon started with the dear little family for London. collect for Miss Chick. drove to Haymarket.
 Shakespeare. competition. the darlings did well - one commended. the after night. great joy. took tea in London. home very tired.

9 WEDNESDAY [190-175].

Midsummer Fire Insurance ceases.

To-day I fulfilled my long promise to spend some hours with Helen Sault. Dr. R. H. came to Chobham with me - a lovely drive. She & Miss W went to S^r Spicer's Hill. We had a long & very pleasant afternoon. Very much sunny & talk. Garden beautiful. Heard how she had laid out others. Dr. Spicer came after dinner with Cecil & Mary.

10 THURSDAY [191-174]

D First Quarter, 9.37 p.m.

This is the day of my birthday festival. I drove back from Chobham with the children in face of a storm. Dr. Wisk - meeting of tax. residency at Bromley. Then set off for London. to Canton St. Hale where the birthday festival was being held. delightful from first to last. music, dance. Home. Hilli cherry sauce 2.43. 1.2.?

11 FRIDAY [192-173]

Spent the day quietly - have been reading Remondet's book - "The truth about women finished my lecture." The tickets of to-morrow and worked at Sunday's lectures.

Evening drove with dear K.H. to Gillingham, near Chatham. found the meetg.
 I.L.P. was in the open air. women & labour.

Strange drive back through the dark Rues.

12 SATURDAY [193-172]

S. R. 3.58, S. S. 8.12.

Office. Vol. farm on 2.5.C. Miss Watson joined me, and we drove to Paddington. read and slept in the train - reached Merthyr which seemed full of men and about 8 p.m. I.L.P. Sec met us - little town full. much noise, but - left through it.

13 Sunday [194—171]

8th after Trinity

day lowering, a little sun. mass. Then pleasant drive into the valley. afternoon came comrades and we went to the Park. Got meeting.

Back to hotel W. rest and think. Evening doubtful, but kept up & we held our meeting.
very large and quick.

What we pay for our celebration.

14 MONDAY [195—170]

made an early start.
Dear K.H. such as at Eustace Hotel where we lunched together.

The Bromley a welcome from the darlings.

and in the garden.

The Marbled God's

K.H. joined me. That heart of her accident. a long talk. early to rest

15 TUESDAY [196-169]

S. Swithin.

Morning town office, lunched with de la Bore ~~from~~ Mr. Mand. W. Macdonald.
 Jay De la Bore present. we were to have had 2.5 members afternoon but getting rain made it impossible.

Even. Miss Clark. Mrs.
 Nail & Mrs. Chick came. Talked about women farmers

16 WEDNESDAY [197-168]

To. day. Home & School. hunting. I have arranged to get rid of hill crest. dunked over the north Collegiate school, founded by Miss Buss. and drove to Giddica. Park Garden. suburb, which did not release as

K.H.'s cousin Ruby & Susan spent week with us

17 THURSDAY [198-167]

City and Boro' voters must pay Poor Rate before 20th or lose vote.

Set out on another district. Hunt. This was interesting. out to Ringo dangley. a beautiful neighbourhood. fine views. went to Buildman and were directed to a plot of land. The Inst.
Stems. fine aspect. Good views. Then saw Girls School. out of door teaching.
Thought of Vere.
~~20~~ 14; can't spend evening

18 FRIDAY [199-166]

o Full Moon 6.6 a.m. an invitation from Lady Crawford to meet the Scotch Bailiffs at lunch took us to town in the forenoon. a fine gathering. series of short speeches. heart of Asquith's refusal. Office. some business. delightful garden. party at Hampton Drive. in wood with me not dear Careys. Just at Inston in town for children were and Sun. Both used. but grown & developed.

19 SATURDAY [200-165]

S. R. 4.6, S. S. 8.5.

Rain from morning into City evening. Preparation.
 Night of leader: a short time in the little room and then drive with the children all in high gear to Mayfield. Rain had ceased. Garden grown but very beautiful. Big ox-eye. Daisies: autumn scents. Pleasant to be there though for the last time it may be. wrote. thought quite right I am R.H. in my

20 Sunday [201-164]

9th after Trinity,

a perfectly glorious morning up in good time for the garden drew me. Grass still and very sweet. a serious talk with the leader finished. gave the case of D. O. Hereats' Mary and the Poor. Law. Day continuously in: children very happy. R.H. Phyllis as I drove back to Bromley Before we went to bed heard of the splendid Demon for Scotch Barches in Hyde Park.

21 MONDAY [202—163]

Thought of what my darling's was to go through to-day at the Police Court. Our first insurance. Poor.

The Ct. abide in me a very strange day. Forenoon.

Mr. Snow & Mr. Fisher. a rather time for me. Then return from Police Court. Indictive sent.

May 7. Jeagness came. lunch.

the garden. talk. Haradess started. Splendid night. meet with Sgt. I did not take dark. Shut the house quietly with my dear Phyllis.

22 TUESDAY [203—162]

After a troubled night. a troubled morning full of ill news. Very threatened.
H.H. determined to go to prison. held a consultation with Major in the air. a feeling that everything is in the air.

Decided to take the children from Hillcrest and to send them to St. Margaret's. They arrived in the evening. full of joy.

23 WEDNESDAY [204-161]

Another perplexing day. Drove to London. left children at Victoria office. great delight over success of the river demonstration. See Mr. By & drove out to Curran's & Bude saw land. two plots that may serve. W.S. Beard took us over. saw a school. much more helpful. picked up Maryon & drove to Mayhew. looked on sweet with us; a safer day, but not without trouble. Maitland broken down again. Saw him & agent. settled for Mr. Baker & friends + cents. a pleasure, but rather wrong afternoon spent with Miss Emerson (looked Maitland, looking over the W. Co of Farm. beautifully set, all promising, usual diff - capital. began thinking out 'deader. The One Thing needed.

24 THURSDAY [205-160]

25 FRIDAY [206—159]

Mary left us by an early train. We worked and talked through the morning. afternoon pleasant drive to Groombridge, to meet Mary & Phyllis. a very nice evening and a spirit of trouble & gay was.

Heard of women's Def. in C. M. P. C. and arrests. also of Mrs P's release and serious condition

26 SATURDAY [207—158]

C Last Quarter 9.59 a.m. S.R. 4.15, S.S. 7.57.

We returned to town and while we were at dinner the dear Hirschel came.
 full of design to help Mary's work. afternoon with them, then very work of clearing drawers and destroying papers. With diff of selection. many memories we were all there too.
 Had a little of the Bhagavad Gita.

27 Sunday [208—157]

10th after Trinity.

A pleasant quiet day. My last at Hillcrest. I had the 13 of Mass in the convent church. Night of R.H. in her trial of my child and of my poor R to whom I have been obliged to refuse the deed. Talked over Hellerau for Ven. garden & sweet. Mantland better. Afternoon drove back to the Bromby by the road which has become so familiar. Carrying near the 13.

28 MONDAY [209—156]

A shock this morning. I found that K.H. had to go to the Police Court. Tried to write & thank, but found it difficult. She came back a £5 - fine. They enquired were any goods to distrain. were told no. Person then, w? I be Maidston? They said Holloway. all day feeling of suspense. Con maid arrived, and Maryan returned. evening quiet; but a bewildered feeling

29 TUESDAY [210-155]

R. H. started early, wishing for this day, to avoid capturing Mary in charge. I went back with Miss Mand. Miss Shus. arranged books. Office Saw Miss Smith, others and Dr. Knight. Father depressed about money.
If we are to go on, it will come. R. H. came for drink to Harrow. Took tea with Miss Mand. went to Ladbroke and met Kate who came back with us. By pleasant way

30 WEDNESDAY [211-154]

up waking early: wrote a letter on St. Alb. pleasant to have Kate here. a good Lorensoni wrote. Letters & lecture started afternoon with Phyllis. Croydon. Saw Goldsmith & the house there. on to Hilli met the others. glimpse of Mrs. Fawcett & Mary Ashton. on to Gerard's Cross. Still more charmed with the land.
Mary with us in car. plenty of fun. drove back though the quod. Talk of old. old times with Kate. So glad my dear. with her.

31 THURSDAY [212-153]

Trinity Law Sittings end. Annual and Nov. to July Game Certificates and Gun Licences expire.

To-day we started fairly early and left K at Westminster Office. Saw Mrs Underwood & Mrs Boyle (visit). Daily Herald office on Geo. Busby Mf. wrote letter. promised help. went to Sidney Beards. checked Selbridges. did a little shopping. day beautiful. much warmer. meal out of doors - a little rest to own revised little room together

AUG. 1 FRIDAY [213-152]

Lammas Day

Christ the Roadmaker does not suffice without ~~man~~ helgham man to tread the road.
Business & breaking of.
Mary Scotland. went early.
R.A. Phyllis and I went to London. office. said goodby to Miss Boyle, who is off on holiday. campaign. saw Mrs Duncan about Vote: an. celebration. travelled S. Margate's Bay and were met at Soleto by a painful little party. a walk to the village closed our day.

2 SATURDAY [214—151]

● New Moon, 0.58 p.m. S. R. 4.25, S. S. 7.46.

Fine but cold and grey - many went down the many steps to the sea and sat there a little.

Finished Leador. The Fitz X. and began again to work at St. Al. for the autumn.

Lunch midday

Find the rest. The quick.
The presence of the children refreshing. Much better already, very improved.

Thanks of Hellen for her in most anxious.

3 Sunday [215—150]

11th after Trinity.

A quick, pleasant Sunday.
Morning took her to Mary in the little convent church.
Day early rather cold.

We spent it principally in a large tray. Fred. K. H. and I writing & reading.
Then 7. all in Mallett Strange reading. The children playing with Indians.

The Sun came out and it was very warm - quick - successful work.

4 MONDAY [216-149]

Bank Holiday. Ramadân begins.

First news Sansbury's return.
 I sent a tel. To-day began well we had our sea-bath. Later cold and throat coming. We found our own nook and had our lunch on the shore. Up to tea forced in by the cold.
 from a cheerful night.
 Little walk to the village as reading 'Guarded Health' brightens day to an end. good sleep

5 TUESDAY [217-148]

This morning, in bed finished Sp. al. & processes in. I hope I shall be able to go. Talk with my dear K.H. temperaments. large families. Delightful letter from J.D.P. also from my comrade Ben T. Lett. Spent forenoon reading papers & writing letters afternoon work in broder. bus to Dover. old memories thronged in fast. a walk with Phyl along Caith. S! The old house gone. Evening wonderful brightness of French coast

6 WEDNESDAY [218-147]

The same kind of day. Sun. less, rather cold. A little rain.

Indoor forenoon writing & reading: rereading Myers' poem St. Paul & Garry in the afternoon under stormy springs to Canterbury. Cathedral unpleasant scene. children not allowed in without hats. bags taken. and these they call the Honors of the father: we prefer his open sky - pleasant drive home and a little south into Ph to the village: read a little of Pater's Renaissance.
A has not quite the charm he had for me once

7 THURSDAY [219-146]

Heavy rain in the night and a much brighter morning. we were delighted as we had planned a day at Dunckburgh.
May brief. much luggage: 9 afternoon cries from Sun. and in by Rm. down through Sandgate & High passed one man. man & later memories. Reached ^{Dun} to find the tide fully in. we could not bathe, but we spent a very pleasant afternoon, visited Folkstone, took tea there and did shopping on our way back.

Gay read Steam Communities

8 FRIDAY [220-145]

a great shock & sorrow to-day. Early in the afternoon as I was writing I had news of the death of my very dear & long friend Arthur Herischel. I c^d think of little else all day. It was fun we went to the shore and bathed with the children read: The never-remembered a Bushman's story. My mind all the time with that sad house, from which the beloved one has gone maybe not

9 SATURDAY [221-144]

D First Quarter, 4.3 a.m.

S. R. 4.36, S. S. 7.34.

day fine morning, wet afternoon. Forenoon busy over letters & preparations. wrote beginning of slender
 'Rom d'abnuts' for W.M.W.S.S. dep to Asquith. reviewed 'Voice & the wilderness' J. Butler. left after lunch with K.H. & Ph for Dover. Thence to Chislehurst and home to Bromley. Thought much all day of my dear friend who has passed & his wife Pleasant to be at dear Bracknell again. night read Carpenter's Drama The Return. Journey. Sea-dreams

10 Sunday [222-143]

Wrote at ^{12th after Trinity} ~~Brighton~~ the U read Carpenter's Drama of don & Death with thought about afternoon address: a beautiful day; set out for London soon after lunch an immense crowd in Trafalgar Sq. Sanobry cheered to the echo. spoke early: met many old friends. Sybil Parkhurst met at start of a rat. Seen a whitehall. arrests then at office. home

11 MONDAY [223-142]

Half Quarter Day.

a busy day. from started early. Mrs. Ghus, sang and paid King. House looking nice. R. A. & Ph with me, as they were yesterday. Office. Mrs. Beyer & Mrs. Smith: gave a leaflet Roundabout: then Selfridge Ronco, and Channing & from which to Dover where our dear children met us. slow but pleasant drive to St. Margaret's glanced at a book by A. Blackwood. P. Simon Ray Carr

12 TUESDAY [224-141]

Grouse shooting begins.

rather cold and dull in the morning. Got in writing. Am thinking of a little series on women. read 'Woman & primitive culture'. Present situation. 'Who is to blame?'

afternoon warmer: we had a pigeon little trophy to eat. Tea on the shore. much fascinated by a book a prisoner in Fairyland by Alison Blackwood. The den dream. Can't see stuff

13 WEDNESDAY [225-140]

This morning warm. I did a little reading, and then with Ph, Vera & Sue ran down to the shore. The sea better much than we have had it yet. I'm quite brave. Rita with a cold. Up to lunch, afterwards saw. I wrote letters. Jack. Capt. Curran. Miss Bullock. Alex Clark and read some of the delightful Fairy. Can't think to the children, who loved it. A game of Patience with Rita. A talk with K.H. and more reading. Bright the day to an end

14 THURSDAY [226-139]

a most delightful day: answer much until the evening: morning read - thought papers: then raced down with the children to the sandy shore: many people in all sorts of costumes: girls sitting out in bath of dresses: we had a charming dip.

afternoon drive through Walmer & Deal to the Sandwich Sands: children in 5-join - was fascinated all day with "Prisoners in Farn. Land".

15 FRIDAY [227-138]

to day news which made me determine to go to Chertsey. John Scarr standing as - Kenyon the Lib Lab. tells from Danbury and N. Bayle. Started under middle headedness. day bright beautiful evening: we took tea in the meadows: attended finished the 'Tawny-dand Book. a letter from Pat Driver, which I answered man trouble brewing: thought much of the child whom I must save and from R. if she could but see.

16 SATURDAY [228—137]

O Full Moon, 8.27 p.m.

S. R. 4.47, S. S. 7.20.

A perfectly beautiful day.

R.H. predicted heat wave but it was quite cool enough to be pleasant. Wrote & read.

Started 11 a.m. for Sandwich.

Tide high. Sand, splended we bled, using motor for dressing, water warm. Then with R.H. to Ramsgate. Helwig

Bay. Margate. aeroplane close. memories of colour.

Sand & sea. a brown & gold camp field. read papers only.

continue to enjoy the Indian food calmer about the child

17 Sunday [229—136]

13th after Trinity.

Again blue sky & sunshine after some struggling we got all our family lunched for the beach. Had a little Emerson meanwhile. Then gay beach and dip. Papers tell that W. P. has gone to France I am glad.

R.H. and I travelled to London in the evening and found 2 Carric St. quite clean and nice. Our post greeting was an appalling letter from home. Pet. who threatened a visit to S. Margate. Dear R.H. det. to bring child with. a lot of talk.

18 MONDAY [230-135]

It was strange to sleep once more under the thrust of the gas engines. Up fairly early; but left before we finished our business at home and went to Bank Office where I had with H. B. to depay Office. gave a leader, chatg with Mr. Duncan, then S. Miles and S. Pancras where I had a talk with Col Foley that comforted me a little. reached Sheffield. no one there came to the ground.
 Chesterfield. fine meeting.
 Supped with Harben. Talked

19 TUESDAY [231-134]

Three days rolled into one - Began breakfast - long talk with young Webber. fine fellow. arrested for defund; Miss Billing underwent hunger, stroke. Harben drove me to Chesterfield. spoke at Market. Soc. meeting held there from 12 to 12. another small meet-lunch with Harben. went to Mrs. Byler's lodging. met Mr. Spence. we spoke again in the Square against an angry Unionist. then tea together and at 6.15 set out for a town holding meeting in three villages and luncheon with Cheselwright - New Square, which had been held by Mr. Sp. and the Market. Plea we were the last and had a fine day. with up with talking with Harben.

20 WEDNESDAY [232-133]

fine day, still quite dry. I bid-the Harbour goodbye, went to find Mrs Boyle and with her Mrs Trott & Shakespeare met a little round. Alas! in the village great display of yellow and cries for Keston.

We lunched together and started 3 p.m. for London. read papers, thought, sleep talks with Miss Shakespeare scarcely at N.S. before my dear K.H. and Phyllis came. talk about business especially Rome. Then saw them to train and tried to sell a down to a little work.

21 THURSDAY [233-132]

Maryo came early from Scotland: K.H. Ph & Rita a little later. went to office, had a long talk with Mr. Duncan on sales, Har. Mrs. Puckle about dress. then to Victoria where I just caught my train. K.H. and the children met me at Bursledon and we returned home in great peace. a fine night. supper in the shelter: out till late. a new idea about lecture on Irish party

22 FRIDAY [234-131]

The Liberal triumph had begun at Chesterfield; but we were not dismayed. I spent nearly the whole day on the hymnbook reading and taking quotations from Yeats poem "Bombardier Cathleen".

We had a very kind and hospitable experience in the way. Col Polk came and, later, Beris from mother, halfably the words for drink. The poem died! We felt for her so much.

The magnificent hair quivered. Pat came back, as K.H. who is an angel, went with us to state

23 SATURDAY [235-130]

S. P. 4.58, S. S. 7.6.

heavy rain forenoon
Sad thoughts about the child and Klaus, she was cut down. She meant that to leave her and to return to London. Officer Miss Smith: settled under "The Key stone of the arch" K.H. came: we lunched together. They came with me to Mrs. Shear and then we parted. In the quiet evening, I read and finished my article and looked over some papers. Correspondence was with R.M.

24 Sunday [236—129]

14th after Trinity.

S. Bartholomew (Massacre 1572).

a very beautiful day. read way of the Cross & Weymouth Road to Freedom Mass at Battersea - on to Hyde Park. very meeting.
 Wm C Sanderson chair.
 Miss Boyle made a fine speech. Wm C left out 7 took chair & shake.

quick afternoon, read,
 night. left. left.
 young visited Grace & Weymouth Mission.

25 MONDAY [237—128]

C Last Quarter, 0.18 a.m.

Went out in the forenoon. pleasant to see our women & the tiny children school had reopened.
 I visited it and had a talk with Miss Cox.
 The office. Both saw Miss Boyle & Wm Water. we are full of wrath at some of the resolutions — talk with Wm Duncan on vote sales.

26 TUESDAY [238-127]

This is the day of our N.S. mothers' treat. Fortunately warm and dry. I went to town, met K.H. at the office and travelled with her to Bromley. Time for lunch in the open. Miss Ridler present. Had a long talk with her. heard in matters was to be married. She had seen R.H. in possession working smart and well. I am glad.
 They - thoughts after with her.
 Then came the mothers great enjoyment, delightful to see the dear bibles on the upon the grass - quick way reading a few carpenters got to death.

27 WEDNESDAY [239-126]

This forenoon was obliged to go to town to sign Bank of England books. Ph was with me. drive through the City reminding me of old days met K.H. at office and drove back to Bromley. talk with my poor little boy. thought it right to tell her something of her history and to warn. Much troubled about her immediate future - rest of the day quiet talk with Miss Watson. working business engagements etc. R.H. may have to leave us. Monday will settle lovely dream of the beloved O.H.

28 THURSDAY [240-125]

K. H. & Ph. came to town with me and left at 2.5. I saw Suter did a variety of business, and, afternoon drove where Mary told. She was out. I waited for her a little time, reading a book by Wells, left and drove home. evening over papers, old diaries, and studying my writer. Lecture St. Alchey. Had had talk with my old L.S. friend. Rumours of the gas-works taking in over.

29 FRIDAY [241-124]

a dull morning. Some rain and local thunder cleared later. I went to Guston and saw the last of my dear Vera and little Sue - then to Victoria to meet poor Mrs. Heischel. She wanted a last look at Hillcrest where she had been so happy. The day cleared. Garden lovely full of gorgeous autumn flowers. There was some business and we talked of Arthur's what presence seemed to fill the place. Even writing 'What we pay for our civilization

30 SATURDAY [242-123]

S. R. 5.9, S. S. 6.51.

Went forenoon to office and saw Miss Swift about "Vote" Set myself to think out "Armed Revolt" Caught 12⁴ to Bromley. children met me - Dear R.H at home. I felt there was something strange about her manner, afternoon from specially the Rev. A man came on business which we were at dinner. I knew then. In my room at night she told me. She is to go to Holloway on Monday. at! . . .

31 Sunday [243-122]

15th after Trinity. ● New Moon, 8.38 p.m. a pouring wet day.

a little quiet thought in the morning. The Master. Christ.
The world that lives in Him - promise of the future to talked about arrangement and the new House - The day passed I can scarcely tell now. We were all in slowness, though we would not show it. R.H the least of us all. We were talking things over in my room, when sudden messengers appeared. I was glad. This is drawing them together.

SEPT. 1 MONDAY [244-121]

Partridge Shooting begins.

a day even to be common-based. Awful news of Dublin - police also either my son K.H. told me that his sentence was two months. Early in the afternoon we started on our strange journey. In this Anderson, two officers left him at Holloway - returned at 10.30 heavy of his office. W.K. Base. with arrangements. Letter to the Press. Evening news to Mr. Keenan. News went down, but went here

2 TUESDAY [245-120]

a busy day. head aching. tried to still myself in morning. thought. office wrote many letters and drafted one to Branches. morning 9am. married lunch. Home to meet my mother. Told them High indignation. Peter signed. Miss Wilson come - away, gave letters and they in the car put it by disposed by my darling to the Felo's. G. Laneby then. much talk about situation - ran all day

3 WEDNESDAY [246-119]

outside brighter. Miss of my darling always grateful some thought. Mrs. Mrs. Cot. she will petition with teacher office. Very dreary. wrote more letters, asking for protests. Mrs. Boyl. Mrs. U away. Mr. Sidley & Mrs. Hunt wondering well. Margaret & Miss Watson came.

D.H. office. took letter terrible news from Dublin & Cornwall. It is war all round. visited D. H. after afternoon. Mrs. Brown quite wrong preparing for Sunday and my T.S.
Lectures. Very sad.

4 THURSDAY [247-118]

The fourth day of my dear prison. I think of her first morning. Cat at night.
Papers full of terrible news. Thinking out a leader 'Judicial Murder' office, a last feeling then letters, looked alone at Granville, back to office.
Miss Watson came and returned home with me.
I wrote. looked over letters, read. The Mr. Fisher which did not help me much.
Poor Miss Watson was trying to sell votes.
Prison. Commissioner when

5 FRIDAY [248-117]

All these days a feeling of deep depression. Offered my name being talk with her and Maggie Sunday. wet day a little shopping. went to sell 'boxes' but Mary dissuaded me. She drove me back to N.S. in the evening and I spent a quiet time, studying lectures, reading. In the afternoon we held a little council of war. Mrs Hope, Huntman, Sidley, Brown, arranged about 'van' and meetings.

6 SATURDAY [249-116]

rain all day. ^{S. R. 5.21, S. S. 6.36.} many 'van' like fan. To town, taking my leader 'official murder' Mark Wilks & Amy Hicks came. The latter invited me to help in Houston. Girl's strike, promise Tuesday or Thursday - afternoon by good sound meeting. Tottenham Branch. W. Harbord. on to Holloway meeting from 'Van': W. Hyde, Mrs B. G. drove home to Bible class! So happy with Marie - Miss Watson. Mrs Anderson was good sleep.

7 Sunday [250-115]

16th after Trinity. D First Quarter, 1.6 p.m.

Feel and fresh thoughts always of her, my darling! Opened the day with thought. Way of the Cross. "The Divine Alchemist" started it on with M. and I for town.
Gaston. W my pleasure & surprise met Dr. Hamilton, travelled. Man so good & helpful.
Charming greeting from Helen friends. a check in net. I then to the new meeting place of S. church. the Report of Theobald. for Andrew Shute on what we pay for Cm. the response.

8 MONDAY [251-114]

a glorious morning. after the sun had gone. Hilda & W. & me I went out to the pretty little chalet and chatted there until it was time to start. dordon about 2.
Miss Watson met me. Found J. Scurr at office and had a talk with him. arranged for bite with Miss Boyle. Saw W. Duncan. M. I. when Carr Dr. Boncher. home about seven: many letters.

9 TUESDAY [252-113]

To-day, afternoon M & 7 1000's me at 2.5.

Morning. office. Vote saw Mrs Boyle. Mrs Dineen Back to h.s. early afternoon for 'Ch. Home'. Not so large as usual. Many away, hoping. Ran coming down. Tea and then we then went to Horton, where I addressed a large crowd of strikers and others 7mi speech from a dock Bachel. 7am cleared beautiful night

10 WEDNESDAY [253-112]

A busy day: forenoon 7 spent a little time with schools over medical test of our children. Then, with the girls. office. Vote. letters. Saw Mr C. Sanders Miss Boyle and Miss Underwood who to our great pleasure has come back. Then a long journey to Bow Road. met our people and the van.
 Brought it on to the obelisk. Then, first a few children and then a good and interested audience. all over 9.15 to 9.30

11 THURSDAY [254-111]

The days are dragging very hard to realize that she & K.H. has not been in a fortnight. Care. Com. - 5a cases. J. office. write letter to D.C. re McDonald's pronouncement. And with Elona 2/6: about 4³⁰ p.m.
 M. 7. Mr. Hyde. Bale and myself took the Van to India dock, a long, strange journey. At the meeting place many came round: all sympathetic. talk with elderly men: young men crowd in crowd. "Is Kany any when recall". I talked a little with them. then home.

12 FRIDAY [255-110]

a troubled night - slept well; but. dreams! Elona leaving to see doctor. rather hurried mod. all day at Battersea letters etc. morning, 12 noon great excitement over the arrival of the Van. Mr. Bale Mr. Howse. on a E. a thin. W. we had a short dinner hour meeting. lunch here together a little work in the afternoon then curious journey in the Van to Pinner Heat where we held a very good meeting much. some 35 in party.

13 SATURDAY [256-109]

S. R. 5.32, S. S. 6.20.

The day of our demon str. a^h morning t. hari, officia.

Deri class meets. Mrs B about 8 o'clock. rush home to lunch and rest. then drive to Trafalgar Sq.
a fairly good crowd and on the whole, gr^t sympathy.
On leaving saw my dear old friend, Miss Fitz-Simon, who came back with us to the officia. long chat with her and others then back with us little crowd

14 Sunday [257-108]

17th after Trinity. Ember Week.

Sad about my dear one. She is feeling it all. She is to be allowed to see her. up at 7 swell. quiet and. "she last secrets are to those who translate vision into being. mass. thought of her - tried to encourage her in the cell down to Regent's Park. beautiful very good meeting - W. Hyde chair. lunched with Dr Clark back to tea and rest. then with my three who sold vote. to their store. marked Places where? a most marvellous

15 MONDAY [258-107]

☉ Full Moon 0.46 p.m.

M & I left early. Mrs W and I went to town - "Vote" a short time with N. Bayl. She read me her leading art and we discussed the front page.
A.S.C. long day, rather turning much business, mayal anxiety about more.
est. "Vote". I believe I will come in. Isabel another little Peter' amusing. Mrs Spence proposal of mil action, but off discussion.
Evening our 'rally' at Canton. Hale. Good: took some names for vol. Arpa.

16 TUESDAY [259-106]

M saw her mother yesterday and we have been full of that all day. She has had one letter. Decided to pay 2: pm. off a Vote: letter. Lunched with M. W & S. where our mothers met.
Mrs Hirschel came bringing a friend. We had tea together. Then M left by The child is ruffled by very wet all night.
read a weird story by A Blackwood and had a strange dream about N. Bayl.

17 WEDNESDAY [260-105]

Ember Day.

Forenoon office. Heard about Conant's offer.
Saw Isabel & Peter.
Lunched at Grandis: the Mr & Mrs W came in and I had the biz of reading my dear one's letter from Holloway. Many thoughts and plans - heard of poor Pat at the police court.
Home to tea. Later a very wonderful & inspiring meeting of teachers. Miss Cox's inative. at Clapham

18 THURSDAY [261-104]

Office forenoon. met Mr. arranged for car evening for a visit to Grandis & and met Miss Burns owner of the land. rather amusing interview. It looked lovely. They promised to send plan. Short visit to office, and then home to Mrs. Miss W came. Strange drive to dear Esber and a 5: meeting outside Huber, Mill. home later & two. Very day more interest

19 FRIDAY [262-103]

Ember Day.

Morning office.
Saw Mr. Snow & others. talked over the Conquest Scheme.

a quiet hour in the afternoon. Evening drove to Metropole, and had a pleasant evening with my good friend Mr. C. Taylor of Chester her daughters and others.

20 SATURDAY [263-102]

Ember Day. S. R. 5.43, S. S. 6.3.

a busy, tiring day.
Forenoon - Mr. Wilson was just starting for Lond when Miss Wilson asked me to say the children were arriving 12³⁰. We went to Brighthelm then to Victoria: found it a mistake. Lunched & went to Holloway with flower etc.
They met the children and took them to Bradenhill - So sad without her

21 Sunday [264-101]

18th after Trinity. S. Matthew a troubled and not very satisfactory day. Went to Mass forenoon: made discovery of my loss.

Interview with Helen. very sad. Through the day busy over my new leader 'Smouldering' Form.
Tried to read & think. very difficult. Missed my darling all day.
Thought of her much.
The children gather sad. M tried almost more than she can bear.

22 MONDAY [265-100]

Saw both servants. M thought it best they sh go at once. Then train to town. Saw in leader heard more about the Parrott case. Child born and died - little mother at death's door. M^r Harbony came. Lunch at E. M. Co's.
Office again. and home. an hour's rest before settling out for Blomfield. swore and restless Lodge meeting - a wonderful night.

23 TUESDAY [266-99]

Autumnal Equinox. ☾ Last Quarter 9.30 p.m.

Another bad day. It began well. Telegram order sent for them to see K.H. passed to home. Not my hair dressed as she likes to see it. Went with M & children to Shearn's. M. Chick & Mrs W there - lunched. Got flowers and drove to Holloway - refused to see her. With this a great passion of anger and an aching head. Back to mother's. Robert's club Home. office a little rest. Printed a large supper. hearts of Perseus.

24 WEDNESDAY [267-98]

Forenoon office. chat with Mr Snow. If be more guard! Was esteem for exaltation of self. Home to lunch and dress. Own first at Home & Hausman. Majorities. Very well attended. By a mob caught 5th at Victoria. Dear Ph at Shortland. M. Chick came later. The W.K. Parkes. a very good meeting in Market Square. Considerable sympathy. Even a little talk with M & M. feeling sad and out of sorts.

25 THURSDAY [268-97]

The room for dinner K. H. hanging tidies, deep cracks little room when I spent a short spell. Children a station. They are pathetic, feeling the strain office. Sudden idea about leader. It came on seeing masters $50,000,000 to stop the strike. Rebellion! The element Browning began to throw it together. Spent the evening with dear Amy Hirschel. Sad but trying to take up life. read obituary of her husband's vic transit - wife for him to

26 FRIDAY [269-96]

Farmers went to Aclon. Mr. Garrison met me and told me about the strike. men holding out gallantly. Official much doing. Home early afternoon - extraordinarily warm like the middle of summer water again on leader. Protest meeting. very well attended. J. Scowen Miss Bayle. Mr. Mustard: 27. The new spirit! Mary with us and working hard letter from Mr. Hope which Tansworth.

27 SATURDAY [270-95]

S. R. 5.54, S. S. 5.47.

Two more days. Took leader to office and read at W. H. Boyle. talk ^{and sermon} about funds with Mrs Boyle chewing news of "Vote" Gov's meeting, paper collection Saw May Anderson. Home to rest, read, worked on address for Wed - slept a very little then to S. Mark's Lane, where I met H. B. and Mr Wilson; journey to Home etc saw Mrs Purvill and the poor little 14 year old girl. in day nation meeting at street; carried great good-will and desire to help. Home tired, but hopeful

28 Sunday [271-94]

19th after Trinity.

at H. S. meditation. Mass thought of my H. H. whose trial I hope is nearly over. I was thinking about my work when to my surprise in came Mary and Elona. The latter looking better we lunched together; we drove to Nat Club and picked up Mr. K. P. and her son. drove Hyde Park where we had very fine meeting. sermon spoke well; resolution passed, much sympathy.
 I came back to Brookvale with the girls. to stay until my "dear" comes back. we all try to keep cheerful; but we feel the strain.
 day done.

29 MONDAY [272-93]

S. Michael & All Angels. Michaelmas Day.

a busy and trying day - Forenoon came Mrs. Lane with sheaves of flowers - letter from our darling. He asks that, for the answer since she be the hand.
 wrote out her message for 'Vote'. Children took it of. afternoon meeting for forming Branch, small but very kind; some good women Back to fund - excitement.
 Mrs. Watson had rec. message that H. H. was to be sent out in the evening. We took up in motor to find an excellent gown - went on to Balt. School. Court this Bromley - very tired.

30 TUESDAY [273-92]

● New Moon, 4.57 a.m.

We were all up early and full of excitement. Darning breakfast at Margaret with us. She the start and the long drive outside Hallowing tedious went. Felling's indignation the at last the dear face.
 It seemed changed at first.
 she has suffered cruelly.
 The afternoon was spent in looking after her. We had her in bed in her own beautiful room.
 Oh! so glad it is over.
 Then to go to the office for our vote. B. meeting My dear would come up to my room