The following letter from James Scott Esq to the Chamberlain was read

Dear Sir

When I mentioned to Mr. Davus that I would be very glad to supply the Corporation of Derry for time to time with such sums as might be wanted as far as £6000. - or £7000. p. p. at legal interest I told him that in case any proposal was accepted of, it would be necessary to give me some notice prior to the borrowing any part of the money, in order that the trustees to my Marriage Settlement might be informed of it, (this I suppose would require every little time) I also told him that the whole amount was to be called for within about the time, such as eighteen months or nearly, the rate of interest six p. cent untill such time as the full sum of six thousand pounds was borrowed, from which day it should be reduced to 5 1/2 %

Mr. Scott's letter

I hope these terms may meet the approbation of the Gentlemen of the Corporation, at all events I should myself much be obliged to them for the preference they have given and been so kind as to give me I am Most obliged Yr Servant

The Mayor acquainted this Common Council that he called them together, in order to enter into anew Contract for the construction of a Port Gullis or draw Arch to cross the following Article

Ordered that the same be agreed to and the Mayor to affix the Common Seal thereto Whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made in this Kingdom in the Thirtieth year of the Majesty's reign of his present Majesty King George the third, It is enacted that it shall and may be

be Lawfull to and for the Mayor Community and Citizens of Londonderry, to build a bridge over the river Loughfoyle at the City of Londonderry, and they in Common Council assembled are impowred to contract and agree for the building building and carrying on such bridge Provided always that in such bridge there be one lifting port Cullis or arch of twenty five feet at the least in the Clear in broad-th with wooden piers of sufficient strength at proper distances for Marping vessels through the same and that each lifting arch or port Cullis, shall be placed in that part of the Bridge at the least distance of one Quarter of the width of the river to be measured from the water mark of the Derry side of the river. . . And whereas previous to the making of the said act the said Mayor Community & Citizens of Londonderry on the 2 day of May in the year of our Lord 1759 entered into & executed certain Articles with Samuel Box & Jonathan Thompson of Charlestown in the province of Massachusetts in America Carpenters for the erecting of a bridge over the said river to be carried into execution as soon as the said Mayor Community & Citizens of Londonderry should by law be impowred to erect the same , and by said Articles the nature & extent of such bridge is particularly mentioned & expressed & the said Mayor Community & Citizens did thereto covenant to pay the said Samuel Box & Jonathan Thompson & the survivor of them his Executors Administrators & assigns the sum of ten thousand pounds British Sterling, on the said bridge being finished & completed in a proper & workmanlike manner with good sufficient timber & according to a model then produced to the said Mayor Community & Citizens of Londonderry as by the said Articles to which the said parties refer may appear, & whereas the said act of Parliament makes it necessary to alter the said contract in the particular respecting the said draw arch or on port cullis & an additional expence will be thereby incurred to the said Mayor Community & Citizens of Londonderry.

 Now it is hereby agreed upon by & between the said Samuel Cox & Jonathan Thompson & the survivor of them his Execut^r Adm^r & assigns & the s^r Mayor Community & Citizens of Londonderry that they the s^r Samuel Cox & Jonathan Thompson & the survivor of them his Execut^r Adm^r & assigns shall & will provide & supply such additional quantity of good & sufficient oak timber as will be necessary for such port cullis or Arch at the rate such timber has been purchased in Boston and the freight paid for the carriage of the same to the Port of Derry & the other necessary charges & that they the s^r Samuel Cox & Jonathan Thompson shall & will provide supply sufficient workmen for carrying such work into execution They the said Mayor Community & Citizens of Londonderry paying such workmen the usual wages paid by the said Samuel Cox & Jonathan Thompson for the other work of said bridge & the timber necessary for the warf of this port cullis & all iron work & other necessary articles requisite for such Arch not included in the contract entered into the 2^d of May 1709 to be furnished by the said Mayor Community & Citizens of Londonderry and for the superintendance time & trouble of the s^r Samuel Cox & Jonathan Thompson in and about the erecting of such port cullis or Arch & the abutments herein after mentioned. They the s^r Samuel Cox & Jonathan Thompson do hereby agree to accept of such sum & payment for the same as the said Mayor Community & Citizens in common Council assembled shall deem sufficient satisfaction & payment. And Whereas the s^r Mayor Community & Citizens of Londonderry are to provide the abutments necessary for said bridge, Now it is covenanted & agreed upon that they the said Mayor Community & Citizens shall furnish sufficient timber for the same to the said Samuel Cox & Jonathan Thompson & pay the expence thereof & they the s^r Samuel Cox & Jonathan Thompson do covenant & agree

We the Common Council of this City therefore think it a duty we owe to our King & Country, as well as to the Memory of our Ancestors who defendd this City to speak out our Sentiments on this occasion least our Silence might be construed into an approbation of the alterations sought for for, and We do declare that we will to the utmost of our power oppose every alteration that may tend to subvert the Protestant ascendancy in our happy constitution as settled at the Revolution

Lord Stanmore

Resolved that we highly approve of the conduct of Lord Stanmore and the Roman Catholics that joined together in Resolutions respecting their rights and Privileges, and are of opinion that the bill lately brought into Parliament of this Kingdom so far as it respects admission to the Poor Seminars of education and employing apprentices are fully adequate, and ought not to be amended

Resolved that the above resolutions be ingrossed, pass'd under the seal, and transmitted with an address to the Lord Lieut

Convinced that our present happy Constitution gives to the People of these Realms a more Extensive and Perfect freedom than any other Nation can boast, and a Security of Property whether Hereditary or acquired, unsurpassed in the annals of the World.

We the Mayor Community and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, in Common-Council Assembled are determined to support this Source of their invaluable Blessings against all attacks whatsoever; Foreign or Domestic, and altho like other Human Institutions it may have faults, yet we will strenuously Oppose any attempt to amend them by any other than Constitutional means and as it appears to us from Certain Publications and Hand Bills lately distributed through the County - That Armed Associations are proposed for the purposes of Reform; we earnestly exhort our Fellow Citizens to use their accustomed moderation and laudable Observance of good order and to avoid being Cajoled into a proceeding at all events Unnecessary and inadequate to obtain the desired Effect, and persuaded as we are that Armed Meetings at this time tend directly to Sedition and disorder and being firmly Resolved that the Credit peace and Harmony of our City shall not by such Associations be endangered We do hereby pledge ourselves to the utmost of our expec--tions that we will assist the Civil Power in Discoun-tenancing all such meetings, at the same time we trust <sup>that the prudence of our fellow Citizens shall understand</sup> this Interference unnecessary, and that it will induce them to seek from the Wisdom and goodness

Goodness of Parliament alone for that attuation or Reform of our Constitution which may be deemed Essential to our future prosperity
